

What Can I Offer?

- Visiting classrooms and holding reflection conversations with teachers
- Working in teams to develop plans of action to increase student achievement
- Working with teachers to analyze data and plan instruction based on the data
- Providing support with progress monitoring
  - ‘at-risk’ students
  - Organizing the Afterschool ReadAbout Program- provide data reports to classroom teachers
  - Imputing school data
  - Providing support to obtain interventions for ‘at-risk’ students

Megan Wigglesworth
Eastwood Elementary

(701) 499-1230

mwigglesworth@west-fargo.k12.nd.us

Megan
Wigglesworth

Literacy/RTI
Instructional
Coach

2010-2011

I would like to extend a warm welcome back to Eastwood this year. My role at Eastwood for the 2010-2011 school year is Literacy/RtI Instructional Coach.

As a literacy coach, I will be working with student s from your classrooms throughout the school year. During this time I will be monitoring their progress by classroom observations, teacher classroom assessment data, NWEA (MAP) testing and teacher referral.

I will also assist in the development of specific interventions for your 'at-risk' students and will working with

Eastwood Elementary: Home of the Eastwood Eagles

I am looking forward to working with all of you and centering on building partnerships throughout Eastwood.

you to implement them. Also this year at Eastwood, we are excited to offer a new before and after school program called ReadAbout by Scholastic. The ReadAbout program is designed to work seamlessly with our core reading instruction. I will be selecting students that will participate in our afterschool program based on scoring Partially Proficient or Novice on NDSA. The students will be given a formative assessment every six weeks. Data reports will be provided to classroom teachers in order to drive classroom interventions.